OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 4 February 1964

1. (Unclassified - [REDACTED]) Talked with Senator Thomas J. Dodd and mentioned to him the NBC television broadcast this evening of the program on the Day of Figs. Dodd was not aware of this program but indicated considerable interest and said he planned to watch it. I told him that this might make his speech on attacks against the Agency quite timely. He agreed and said he would make every effort to make this speech tomorrow or Thursday.

2. (Unclassified - [REDACTED]) Returned to Mrs. Deoley, in the office of Representative Charles A. Buckley, the Congressman's letter requesting information on the case of [REDACTED]. I told Mrs. Deoley that our official position was no comment. However, for the Congressman's personal information these men were not associated with the Agency and we had no definite information on their status. As in the case of Senator Dodd, I asked her if they had been in touch with State Department. She said they had and I indicated this was the best channel for a case of this sort. Mrs. Deoley thanked me for coming by and said there would be no reference in their correspondence to the Agency.

3. (Secret - [REDACTED]) Ascertained that Representative Gale, who previously had agreed to meet with a Korean national, would be available on the afternoon of 27 February and during the day of 28 February. We are making a specific appointment in the next few days.
